ARCHITECTURE STUDENT | POLYTECHNIC OF MILAN

DAVIDE LA CERVA

PROFILE

I am an architecture student at the Politecnico di Milano, currently enrolled in the Master's Degree program in Architecture—Built Environment—Interior Design. I have developed a background focused on architectural design, museography, and the design of exhibition spaces through international academic experiences, workshops, and design projects in Italy and abroad. I am interested in architectural design and museography, with a particular focus on the relationship between space, circulation, existing structures, and user experience.
